Facilitating Positive Change

Resolving Conflict With Difficult People

Are your employees getting bogged down with interpersonal disagreements? Are they struggling with competing priorities or personal agendas? Do you find yourself wasting energy trying to accommodate big egos instead of focusing on the critical challenges facing your organization or team?

Learn how to save time, money and energy through resolving conflicts in their early stages, when they are easiest to solve. Learn how to recognize when you need a more formal process to resolve the most challenging situations.

Participants will develop skills in:

- Handling challenging behaviors
- Reducing anger and negativity
- Developing resolution strategies
- Staying calm when under pressure
- Sharpening your listening and negotiating skills
- Influencing diverse styles to make needed changes

Dr. Manning is a positive, energetic, and hard-working professional in her field. We were very much impressed with her superb insight, personal style, and feedback as well as with the results achieved. I highly recommend Dr. Manning and The Consulting Team for their specialized work in the areas of coaching, team building, leadership training, and conflict resolution.
